

Timely Tips

By Joseph Barry Martin, Ph.D.

November 2008

I am offering you these new timely inspirational tips to help you through these challenging times.

We are now in the number 8 in the Feng Shui cycle of time, so you'll find 4 inspirational meaningful messages and 4 Feng Shui tips to support your growth and goals.

Here's to your success personally and professionally!

TIP #1

Decide what your priorities are and how much time you'll spend.
If you don't, someone else will.

Harvey Mackay.

TIP #2

When we are no longer able to change a situation, we are challenged to change ourselves. Viktor Frankl

TIP #3

Know that what has been given to you has always been what you've asked for.

TIP #4

Love more and hate no more, worry less and focus more, give more and expect less, walk more and sit less, enjoy more and eat less, and finally read more and gossip less. Love always.

TIP #5

Energize your living rooms with beautiful crystals fashioned into wealth chests filled with fake precious jewels. They look great and bring in plenty of Yang energy. Crystals are a great medium for Feng Shui as they symbolize earth energy.

TIP #6

The Laughing Buddha is one of the most beloved of Buddha images seen in homes and restaurants worldwide. He is known as the Buddha of Wealth and brings prosperity and wealth luck to those engaged in any kind of business. Place this Buddha in the living room, preferably facing the front door.

TIP #7

The Pine Tree is probably the strongest symbol of inner strength and permanence. In the cold winter months, the pine does not lose its needles, thereby manifesting its steadfastness, strength, and fortitude, along with lasting friendship in adversity. As a result, the pine is a favourite symbol of longevity and is likely the most frequently painted tree. Place a painting of the pine tree in the living room. You may also have a Norfolk or other pine indoors, and pine trees on your property.

TIP #8

The deer is a very popular symbol associated with speed, endurance, and long life. Phonetically, the deer in Chinese sounds like the word lu, which also means good income, prosperity, and wealth. Displayed in the work place, the deer symbolizes the wish for the company to prosper and grow. Displayed at home, and especially if standing on a bed of coins or gold ingots, it means the family living there will enjoy a long life of ease and growing prosperity.

(Thanks to Lillian Too, Practical Feng Shui)

For a Feng Shui consultation for harmony, balance, revitalization and peace for home and/or office, or

for Prepping (Advanced Staging) a house for an easy, quick Sale, please contact Joseph at

O. 250 474-4176

josephmartin@shaw.ca

www.HouseOfLightHarmony.com

www.JosephBarryMartin.com

Welcome to your prosperity, health and happiness!